

PLAGIARISM POLICY

Plagiarism is defined as the unacknowledged use of the work of others as if this were your own original work.

Examples of plagiarism:

- Copying and pasting from the Internet and posting somewhere else without proper citation
- Mentioning your name on another person's essay or project
- Copying exact wording - verbatim - from another individual's work / text
- Using another person's tables, diagram, sounds, photo or ideas without proper references / citations
- Purchasing another person's text and using it as your own

By submitting paper for publication to the journal, Scholar (s) / Author(s) certify that:

- I/We know that plagiarism is the use of another person's idea or published work and to pretend that it is one's own.
- I/We are fully aware that plagiarism is wrong
- I/ We declare that each contribution to your project from the work(s) of other peoples published works or unpublished sources have been acknowledged and source of information have been referenced.
- I/We certify that you are solely responsible for any incomplete reference that may remain in my/our work.

Anti-plagiarism declaration:

I have read and understood the rules on plagiarism. I hereby declare that this piece of written work is the result of my own independent scholarly work, and that in all cases material from the work of others is acknowledged, and quotations
